

Well, it's growing late. Bill and Eleanor came in tonight from Boothbay Harbor. Bill is trying to find a place to live and a new job perhaps. His job with the Maritime Commission seems to be somewhat washed up. He does not know for certain. But he is certain that he needs a house. Meanwhile they are with us. Bill is going back to New York tomorrow for a day or two, and I'm driving him in town, which means that I must get up in the morning.

Next Tuesday we go to Everett for all day, to meet with the people of the church again, at least a small group of them. The minister is away on vacation, but will be back in August and we shall see some of the folks of the Everett church once more besides on next Tuesday. Yes, we take the youngsters and are going to be well provided for.

Oh, but I have not told you that we saw Shep the other night, and have gotten put up to date. Gerry is very happy. Ethelyn and George have an apartment in the apartment house where Shep is superintendant. Betty is married and living in Malden, and expects a baby in the fall. How we move along.

Now have a good sleep nights, Mother, and pray for us all.

Love to that lovely sister of mine and ours,

Love to you,
