quite as well-matched person by now.

Oh, for the first time I have seen Sunday and morning look like noon. The cloth came back here looking beautiful. They like the way they will look back.
They are turned every way out except the top. All we have to do is to put the top. But this part one and shall like the top - very much. I seem to be getting to the end of my paper and have much more to you all and a prayer for you and yours - may God bless us. Lovingly

Dear Mom & Olive,
These years certainly sound good! I can see them to all kind up in some on the dining room table perhaps - a cooling your ^{letter} made me think of something good & nice pie and cottage cheese. Lots of good things that my folk like in the fall of the year. We are going to see it the cook has will make some for us for Thanksgiving.
