

(8)

tonight. I have learned how to persuade him to keep hot pipes in his ear so that when broke quickly. He has been when squeals has a head cold. We had a cold wave here last week and it is cold today. it is like summer again.

May and the boys are playing the record player preparatory to going to bed.

main table (later)

The boys are in bed and me - think I'll go there, too.

Much love and a prayer for God's blessing of joy, peace and happiness which binds us close even across an ocean or two. Love, Betty & Bill